

- The Schüren Pedigree Chart. (The Family History Library, Utah, USA, pedigree number 1361). Descendants of Michael Schüren (1703-1777) and Agatha Pasch (1698-1771). Some descendants lived in New Jersey - no locations given on the chart. The main author of this record is Henry Joseph Schuren, 1932- .Published: Henry Joseph Schuren, Stanhope, New Jersey, United States, 1990.

Row 2 left to right:

- Traditional 19th century thread-bound genealogies. From the collections of Shanghai Library, China.
photo: Gu Yan, Shanghai Library, China
- Genealogical Chart of Sahla Sellassie, King of Shoa, Ethiopia, 1971.
Author: Haile Selassie I, Emperor of Ethiopia, 1892-1975.
Title: Heywatena YaItyopya Ermeja. Vol.1
Written in Bath, England, United Kingdom, 1937
Published: Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, 1973.
The book is an autobiography by the Emperor Haile Selassie, the great grandson of Sahle Selassie. The circular chart was made by Mahtama Selassie Walda Masqal in 1971 and adds more family and offspring to the smaller 'blue curtain' family tree (Row 3 centre) made by Takla Sadeq Makuriya. The original script of the book was written in England. Haile Selassie was in exile in Britain during the years of the war between Ethiopia and Italy, 1936-41.
- Watercolour of Hjoerring Town, North Jutland, Denmark. Painting by Elise Koefoed in an autograph album belonging to Sophie Brinch-Seidelin, 1845.
© Vendsyssel Historical Museum, Hjoerring, Denmark

Row 3 left to right:

- Family Tree of Sahla Sellassie, King of Shoa, Ethiopia, 1944.

Author: Takla Sadeq Makuriya
Title: YaItyopya Tarik: KaAse Tewodros Eska Qadamawi Hayla Selase
Published: Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, 1956.

The book in which the family tree is found is a history of Ethiopia from the time of King Tewodros to that of Emperor Haile Selassie. The objective of the family tree is to establish the blood ties between Sahle Sellassie (1813 – 1847), descendant of Menelik I, Son of King Solomon, and Emperor Haile Selassie I, (1892-1975). The family tree was made in 1944 by the famous historian, Takla Sadeq Makuriya.

- The Descent of George Washington from King John and Nine of the Twenty-Five Barons Sureties of Magna Carta. (Family History Library, Utah, USA, pedigree number 1493). George Washington (1732-1799) was a descendant of nobility and royalty. Families included De Ros, De Clare, De Lacy, De Vere, Plantagenet and Washington.
Published: [Washington, District of Columbia]: Library of Congress, United States, c1991.

IFLA Genealogy and Local History Section

www.ifla.org/en/about-genealogy-and-local-history

Members of the Standing Committee

www.ifla.org/en/node/559

Ruth Hedegaard, Denmark, Chair
Russell S. Lynch, USA, Secretary
Janice McFarlane, Scotland, UK, Treasurer
Janet Tomkins, Canada, Information Coordinator
Elizabeth Melrose, UK, Newsletter Editor

IFLA GENLOC Posters

Heredity and Environment - Genealogy and Local History for All

POSTER 1

Heredity and environment contribute to who we are and how we live – and reveal the significance of local and family histories. What is our inheritance?

The IFLA Genealogy and Local History Section consists of a growing community of librarians and historians dedicated to the dissemination of international genealogy and local history. The posters demonstrate the nature of genealogy and local history and why these disciplines are important in terms of libraries, archives and museums.

POSTER 1

Row 1 left to right:

- Family Tree from the Juan Family in Taiwan. The Family Tree is written in this huge volume and on a large piece of white cloth of 3 x 120 Chinese feet. It was composed by Mr. Lien-Chou Juan of the Juan family from the Chung-Hwa County, Taiwan, using the traditional brush pen. The 1st Generation quoted commences in 1686 when the first ancestor, Chia-Sheng Juan, moved to Taiwan from mainland China, and it continues to the 12th generation in 1974.
By permission of Miss Chin-Lin Juan and the Juan Family
- Pedigree and Achievement of John Morgan, Carmarthen, gent, by Thomas Jones ('Twm Siôn Cati'), c 1530 – 1609. Fountain Gate, Tregaron, 1605. National Library of Wales Pedigree roll 52 from the sixteenth century, compiled by Thomas Jones [Ach a Statws John Morgan, Caerfyrddin, bonheddwr, gan Thomas Jones ('Twm Siôn Cati'), Fountain Gate, Tregaron, (Ceredigion, Mid – Wales), 1605.]
By permission of the National Library of Wales
- Madein Family Tree. (The Family History Library, Utah, USA, pedigree number 2413) The Madein Family of Jordan. An Arabic pedigree chart. Published [S.l. : s.n.], 1999.

Row 2 left to right:

- Saksreferatet om Saktmoen av 22. November 1591. [Norwegian document] The Saktmoen case reference of 22nd November 1591. NRA, Oslo bispestol, Eidsberg prestearchiv, diploma av 22. November 1591, Oslo.
[The Saktmoen Family.]
photo: Odd Amundsen, Riksarkivet

- Confucius: a traditional ancestral portrait from the Chinese genealogy, Kong shi zong pu (Kong Genealogy). 26 vols. Compiled by Kong Jichang, Kong Shaozhen, and Kong Xiande. 1918.
- Notebook showing the deaths from Spanish Flu 1918, Illinois, USA.
© U.S. National Archives and Records Administration

Row 3 left to right:

- Haymaking at Mearbeck, near Long Preston, Yorkshire, UK, late 1940s or early 1950s. This group includes members of one family from the Long Preston district (the Cooks), but the two men on the right are itinerant farm workers from Ireland.
- The Family Tree of Herzog Ludwig I of Württemberg, Germany (ruled 1568-1593).

POSTER 2

Row1 left to right:

- The Martin Family. (Family History Library, Utah, USA, pedigree number 1386). Compiled and produced by the Family History and Genealogy Research Center, Brigham Young University. Presented to Governor James G. Martin from the North Carolina members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in support of National Family Week. It includes Bodiford, Fleming, Grubbs, Morrison, Peeples, Price and related families. This genealogical chart contains biographical sketches of the ancestors of James Grubbs Martin (b. 1935), Governor of North Carolina. Family members lived in North Carolina, Georgia, New York and elsewhere. Published in Provo, Utah: Brigham Young University, 1985.
- The Family Tree of the Radulovic-Pandurica Family from Moraca in Montenegro. Created by a member of the genealogical circle involved with the genealogy website www.srdjevdan.org. This website is a voluntary project dedicated to the Saints Day of Saint Sergius and Saint Bacchus, (or slava Srdjevdan in Serbian – also Sveti Srdj). The site tries to encourage an interest and research in genealogy, family history, culture and tradition, among people connected with the celebration of these Patron Saints. Working on the project is an informal community of individuals who celebrate Srdjevdan as a Saints Day for their family, and also many who have an interest in genealogy, family history, ethnology, history, ethnogeography etc.
This Family Tree belongs to the online collections of the Srdjevdan.org community website, www.srdjevdan.org/rodoslovi/radulovic-pandurica.html. Reproduced by permission.
- The Thompson Family in Paradise Square, Long Preston, Yorkshire, UK, nd.