

IFLA President's Priorities: Dashboard – November 2025

Priority	Goals	Status	Actions Taken
1: Implement the IFLA Strategy for the benefit of the sector	- Ensure engagement with the Strategy across the Federation - Track progress and communicate this	 On Track	- Onboarding for new Committees focused on impact in achieving Strategy goals - GB defining its role in Strategy deliver in Dec.
2: Maximise the impact of the IFLA Trend Report as a tool for the field	- Integrate the Trend Report into our planning and delivery at all levels - Ensure the Report's ongoing relevance	 On Track	- Tools produced for Units to use the Trend Report - Survey on the Trends and IFLA open - Next steps on Trend Report on GB Dec. agenda
3: Engage members and partners, focusing on communication and transparency	- Pursue regular communication with Members about HQ and GB work - Enhance outreach to all parts of the world	 On Track	- President's messages shared and Townhalls scheduled - Next steps on open GB meetings on Dec agenda
4: Ensure effective and well functioning IFLA governance	- Complete Governance Structure Health Check and implement its findings - Implement Code of Conduct for volunteers	 On Track	- Advisory Committee on Ethics formed, - Governance Structure Health Check Focus Groups taking place in December
5: Move IFLA's financial sustainability strategy forwards	- Maintain balanced IFLA budgets - Ensure investments in capacity to contribute to long-term sustainability	 On Track	- Sustainability a major focus of the December GB - Surplus budget agreed for 2026, including investments in better services and partnerships
6: Introduce our new WLIC model, working together, starting with Busan 2026	- Deliver successful 2026 and 2027, implementing WLIC review findings - Enable evaluation of impacts	 On Track	- Active programme planning for Busan, with themes released, and more to come - Work underway to name London 2027 committee
7: Make IFLA100 dynamic, global and inclusive, focused on the past and the future	- IFLA100 builds engagement in IFLA across geographies and communities - Boost the field as it enters its 2nd century	 On Track	- Successful workshop with IFLA100 publication authors in November - Announcements due in December/January