Rare Books and Special Collections Section

This Section provides a forum for discussion and exchange of information on matters of particular concern to rare book, manuscript, and special collections librarians, including the collection, preservation, description, and use of such materials, in all types of libraries worldwide.

The Future of Rare Books and Special Collections

- Unique heart of libraries and communities
- Relevant to all
- Accessible and discoverable
- Unlocked with digital tools, available for digital scholarship

the proposed decree - Resolved, that the committee of three, appointed by this Board decreased to 5 - on April 20, 1908, consisting of Messrs. Whitaker, Jordan and Henry Hallman, to examine the proposed decree, which it is contemplated

Challenges

- Expanding competencies: more digital skills, outreach and community engagement
- Investigating history of collections: focus on provenance, possibility of repatriation
- Collecting issues of current significance and future research interest
- Recognizing silences and gaps in our collections: working to include missing voices

Events

- Libraries in the Time of War: Symposium, Uppsala, Sweden, March 2023
- Empire, Indigeneity, and Colonial Heritage Collections: Confronting Difficult Pasts, Enabling Just Futures: Satellite meeting, Leiden, August 2023
